Laura Gardner brings with her a depth of acting and teaching experience. For the past eighteen years Laura has taught actors at the renowned Howard Fine Acting Studios in Los Angeles and Australia. Laura deals with each actor as a unique individual and is able to very quickly hone in on what that actor needs in order to grow. Laura works in a warm yet very firm way to help her students discover that inspiration comes from within when they are freed to use their own experiences, fears and joys to create an authentic life on camera and stage.

Beth Riesgraf, LEVERAGE- series regular: “My training with Laura has proven invaluable and has given me a foundation that I continue to draw from each and every day as a working actor.”

Debrianna Mansini, DRUNKTOWN’S FINEST- “Laura Gardner is the real deal. She allows an actor to grow in a safe and experiential way. My work with her is always deep and transformative. What a gift to have her in New Mexico!”

Lisa Lucas, Emmy Award winning producer/writer/actor- “Laura’s workshops are all about trusting and enlivening what’s inside of you to bring your authentic self to your work. Trust me - this is it. For us in NM it’s a rare privilege to have someone of her caliber and experience.”
